The Tuesday bridge tournament will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Union Worthington.

The largest social affair of today will be the charity card party to be given at the Ladies' Literary clubhouse this afternoon by St. Mark's Hospital association.

Curt Williams will entertain at a dinner at the Alta club Wednesday evening for Miss Geddes, Capt. Conrad and their bride party.

The Post Bridge club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Walthall.

The Seekers' Literary club Mrs. R. H. Thomson at 809 South Ninth East street.

The Woman's club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. L. S. Deane at 214 East Third South street. Mrs. A. V. Taylor will have charge of the programme.

The Shriners will go to the Colonial theater this evening in a body.

Mrs. L. L. Savage will entertain at an informal bridge tea Saturday afternoon for Miss Katherine Geddes.

Miss Storm of New Jersey, who is the guest of her sister and her husband, Lieut. and Mrs. Walthall, and Miss Garey of Maryland, who is the guest of her brother, Lieut. E. B. Garey, were guests of honor at a bridge party Monday evening given by Lieut. and Mrs. Clark R. Elliott at their quarters at the post, which were prettily decorated in red carnations. Six tables were played and Miss Nell Henderson of this city assisted.

One of the beautiful luncheons of the season was that Monday in the gold room of the Alta club, given by Mrs. H. Vance Lane in honor of Mrs. J. M. Davis. The color scheme was pink and green, and at either end of the table were silver candelabra with pink candles and shades and streamers of smilax from the chandelier to the four corners, while a low crystal bowl of pink carnations occupied the center of the prettily appointed table, around which were seated, aside from the hostess and guest of honor, Mrs. Richard Stingley, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. A. C. Ewing, Mrs. F. E. McGurran, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. George Airis, Mrs. Robert Glenning, Mrs. H. D. Niles, Mrs. H. M. Kriebel, Mrs. W. E. Fife, Mrs. H. G. McMillan, Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton, Mrs. E. A. Hutchinson, Mrs. J. J. Bronghall, Mrs. Louis S. Cates and Mrs. George Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer and two daughters, with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney and daughter, will leave Thursday for New York, from which place Mr. and Mrs. Whitney and daughter will sail February 20 to join their son and brother in Naples, to spend several weeks, while Mr. and Mrs. Spencer will join their son Allen, who will land in New York from Germany February 19. They will return here after the inauguration in Washington, March 4.

The Webber home on Second avenue was the scene of a large bridge tea Monday afternoon, when Mrs. T. G. Webber entertained seven tables. Later a number went in to tea. The rooms were prettily decorated in a profusion of daisies, with a large mound of them in the center of the table, where Mrs. George Y. Wallace and Mrs. Karl A. Scheld poured, assisted by Mrs. William H. Cunningham and Mrs. June Sadler Donnell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Foster, who have spent several weeks in Denver, are now the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Morrison in Colorado Springs. Mrs. Morrison was formerly Miss Lillian Burnham.

Mrs. Alice Tomlinson, a teacher in the public schools for several years, who has been seriously ill since Thanksgiving, was taken to St. Mark's hospital again Saturday on account of a relapse.

Mrs. Elliott of Minneapolis will pass through here Friday on her way to California. On her return in March she will spend several days here with Lieut. and Mrs. C. R. Elliott at the post.

The Cup and Saucer club will be entertained Wednesday evening by Mrs. C. R. Aley and Mrs. W. D. Donohue at the apartment of the latter in the Stuffer flats.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Quigley and children have returned from the east, and have as their guest for the summer Miss Emma Quigley of Joliet, Ill.

Invitations have been issued by the freshmen class of the University for a large dancing party, to be given at the Odeon Friday evening, February 12.

Miss Cosgriff will leave this evening for a six weeks' trip to Los Angeles and the beaches, and will return by way of San Francisco.

Mrs. Stephen Shaw of Denver, Colo., will be here this evening to be the guest of Miss Katherine Geddes for several weeks.

Miss Merile Winslow of Los Angeles will be here soon to spend several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tracy.

Tod Goodwin entertained Miss Geddes, Capt. Conrad and their bride party at the Orpheum Monday evening.

Miss Katherine Richards will spend the next two weeks with Mrs. W. C. Jennings.

Mrs. J. C. Hooper returned the last of the week from a short visit in Chicago.

POLICE COURT CASES

One man contributed $100 to the receipts of the city police court Monday afternoon for failing to appear in court to answer a charge of gambling. It was Dan Black, arrested Saturday night by Chief Barlow and Lieutenant Shannon, charged with gambling in the Log Cabin saloon.

For a Monday afternoon session of court the proceedings were of short duration and nothing occurred to cause even a ripple of excitement.

Ross Staup and Harry Jacobs each forfeited a bail of $2 for not appearing in court to answer a charge of violating the speed ordinance.

Joe Lax was found guilty of vagrancy and ordered to leave the city.

Bert Silvers, John Guska and Evan Brooks were fined $5 for being drunk Sunday.

William Strom, the Commercial street cab-driver, arrested Sunday night by Police Officer Yeager and Eddy, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, entered a plea of not guilty, and his trial was set for Tuesday afternoon.

Hop Sing and George Davis, arrested on the charge of selling liquor without a license, had their case continued until Tuesday.

Billy Mahoney was sentenced to thirty days in jail, after being found guilty of drunkenness on Sunday.

Is there more than one kind of Ivory Soap?

No! But there are a hundred imitations. A dishonest grocer will offer one of these and say "This is Ivory"; or
"This is just as good as Ivory."

Do not accept it unless it is stamped
IVORY.
